MS10650

RCM London

SOCIETY OF WOMEN MUSICIANS.

IMPORTANT.

First Composers' Conference.

The Council of the Society of Women Musicians have much pleasure in announcing that the Composers' Conference (a preliminary notice of which was sent out on the Summer Programme) will be held on:

Friday Evening, July 5th, 1912, at 8-30,
AND
Saturday Afternoon, July 6th, at 3-15, in the Rooms of the Women's Institute, 92, Victoria Street, S.W.

On July 5th the evening will be devoted to papers by Members, and on Saturday afternoon, July 6th, Dr. R. VAUGHAN WILLIAMS and Dr. R. R. TERRY have, with most generous kindness, promised to address the Conference on "What should be the aims of our younger Composers" and "The Modes and Gregorian Rhythm," respectively.

The full programme is given on the ticket enclosed herewith, which will admit on both days, and which should be shewn at the door.

The Council feel that this Conference marks an important step in the work of the Society, and may lead to yet wider developments. They therefore earnestly ask that Members and Associates will co-operate with them in making it an assured success, and that they will do their utmost to attend the Meetings.

Though the Conference is intended primarily for Composers, all other Members and Associates are cordially invited to be present, one of the objects of the Society being to bring Composers and Executants into touch with each other, and the Council also feel that the lectures to be given by Dr. VAUGHAN WILLIAMS and Dr. R. R. TERRY, two of the foremost authorities on these special subjects, are of such deep interest and unique value that all who belong to the Society will wish to hear them.